

Dog Obedience (for Home) Beginner Level 1 –

Min. age 4 months. First meeting no dog. Shot records due first class. Commands of sit, heel, down, come and stay will be covered, along with some show obedience rules, home obedience, agility, and Rally by providing written instructions and demos.

Your dog will have the chance to learn to walk on a loose leash, pay attention to you, and wait in a sit position to be fed and other important areas. Positive training techniques encouraged. A Training lead will be provided.

Location: Inside heated building at the Marion Williamson County Armory, Marion, IL.
Located behind the airport on Redco Drive

Sessions: 10, Cost- check JALC web site or catalog for amounts

Spring 2012 Session Starts January 24
Meets Tuesday - 2 different times available
5:00pm - 6:20pm & 6:30pm to 7:50pm

Instructor: Carol Ely

You will need to register through the college. John A Logan College, Continuing Education
http://www.jalc.edu/cont_ed/ (classes, pet care)
Register online or in person at the college.

Dog Agility Classes in DeSoto, IL –

Spring Session 2012 Schedule

Beginner Agility – requires basic obedience

Class 1-

Saturday's starting March 3, 2012 11:00am - 12:00pm

Class 2 –

Wednesday's starting March 14th, 2012 6:00 pm to 7:00 pm

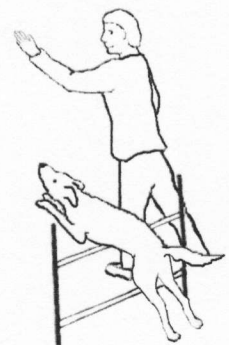

This class is being offered through JALC.

You will need to register through the college.

John A Logan College, Continuing Education

http://www.jalc.edu/cont_ed/ (classes, pet care)

Note: If interested in more advanced level classes check the web site below

Dog Obedience & Agility Private Sessions –

Call instructor Carol Ely to setup a time and for more info. 618-867-3023

or email – carol@canineteamtraining.com

Note: 30 min is usually enough for one dog and handler

Location: De Soto, IL

Check web site for more info- www.canineteamtraining.com